Remarks: Miss Carroll did very well as a student teacher. Her best work was done off-campus with high school students. We would like to see her doing high school teaching in her major field. Her personality is not too good for younger children. She adjusted herself very well with the community people of Caldwell. She was one of the four young women who impressed the community so well that they gave a banquet for their first student teachers. The resident teacher trainer was honored guest for the occasion. The young women sponsored two community entertainments while in Caldwell.
