Mr. H. S. Estelle, District Agent
Extension Service of Texas
Prairie View, Texas

Dear Sir:

I am writing at this time to express some observations which I made during my trip to the farms of those Club Boys, Messrs, Elbert Harris and Henry Francis. Both of these young men along with their parents and agent are due a great deal of credit for their achievements.

However, there are very readily noticeable differences in the two young men. Mr. Francis is of the retiring type which usually makes a real asset to any community as a farmer and public spirited citizen. As to Mr. Harris there are not only those qualities which make for good citizenship but he has real leadership ability as shown by his aggressiveness, tact and ability to get things done. I believe he will go far in the field of rural leadership. Mr. Harris would be my choice to represent the Extension Service.

Respectfully yours,

J. M. Conners
