A Package of Seeds

by

Edgar A. Guest

I paid a dime for a package of seeds
And the clerk tossed them out with a flip,
"We've got 'em assorted for every man's needs,"
He said with a smile on his lip.
"Pansies and Poppies and Asters and peas!
Ten cents a package! And pick as you please!

Now seeds are just dimes to the man in the store,
And the dimes are the things that he needs;
And I've been to buy them in seasons before
But have thought of them merely as seeds;
But it flashed through my mind as I took them
this time,

"You have purchased a miracle here for a dime."

"You've a dime's worth of power which no man can create,

You've a dime's worth of life in your hand!

You've a dime's worth of mystery, destiny,
fate,

Which the wisest cannot understand.

In this bright little package, now isn't it odd?

You've a dime's worth of something known only to God."
