"Wanted"

Wanted

"A girl who is loyal and true,
With the brains to plan and the will to do;
With a spirit loyal that none can doubt,
Who thinks of other folks 'round about;
A girl whose actions makes her mother proud,
And takes her place in the busy crowd,
And plays her part in a splendid way,
No matter if skies be blue or grey.
A girl who is willing, whose nerve is keen,
Whose thoughts and actions are always clean;
Who works with her head and heart and hands,
A girl whom everyone understands.
I know that always she'll play her part,
In lowly hamlet or city mart,

A girl with never a thought of fame,
Who's always trying to place the game
An out of it clamor and din and whirl,
The world pays tribute to such a girl".

Home Demonstration Council

Mrs. Lovie M. Hill

Negro County Home Demonstration Agent

Mrs. Claudia Tompkins

County Home Demonstration Council Chairman

The Waller County Home Demonstration Council is making an effort to aid in multiplying the effect of the demonstration and to develop individuals; to give individuals an opportunity for self-expression through group action; to teach the functions and advantages of organization; and to develop an ability to use democratic processes.

If organizations are to be truly democratic, the individuals composing them must share:

1. In determining and stating their objectives.
2. In planning for the attainment of these objectives.
3. In carrying out these plans.
4. In evaluating the results.

Meeting Date: Every 3rd Saturday in each month.
